Introduction and Conclusion Organizers

Your Introduction Paragraph should include a hook, any background information necessary for your audience and your thesis statement.

A rectangular box containing 12 horizontal lines. A diagonal line runs from the top-left corner to the bottom-right corner, and another diagonal line runs from the top-right corner to the bottom-left corner. These two lines intersect at the center of the box, forming an 'X' shape that divides the box into four triangular sections.

Your conclusion paragraph should slightly mirror your intro paragraph. Start with a transition into a conclusion of your essay. Readdress or summarize key aspects of your essay for your audience.
